FROM OUR NEW YORK CORNESPONDENT.

Naw Yonk, June 19th, 1855. Every day defines more distinctly the only ving issue in our national politics-that be tween Freedom and Slavery - and all efforts made o arrest the struggle on this sole issue, or to dirert attention from it by other collateral quessaving the Union," only seem to bring out more plainly the feelings and resolves of men here at the North to be as firm and united for reedom and its preservation and progress, as the shive-holding interest is for Slavery and its progrees and power. The attempt in Philadelphia of the redit of the city to which our citie last week, to mould the so-called "National Amerlean Convention. to the purposes of slavery was and their presumptuous faith in bribing, buying, or bullying the North into submission, needed, to show both the infutuation of the south the more encouraging and hereitofore more doubtany of at this, especially if he knows any- ful fact that the north has finally found out that t bas a "backbose," and that manhood and daty to country both require that this backbone'b sade manifest to all the world. The city of New York, indeed-true only t the mercenary instincts of those who, in that

Convention, spoke for, but assuredly did not rep ment-was found more ultra on slavery than the slave owners themselves; but, happily, there is a great state behind the city, a great agricultural population, that fears God, but fears not man, and that loves liberty more than it loves in the complete of the state of t bian, and that loves liberty more that it loves function in the proposition, whose own labor loves; and this population, whose own labor loves in the proposition of the 2d inst. Everything was going on satisfablically against such treachery to Truth and Right, to man and to God, as the Barker crow of some to man and to God, as the Barker crow of some called Americans in the Philadelphia Convention called Americans in the Philadelphia Convention while some craw. were guilty of . Last evening, this came crew, by dint of music and cannon, and an array of Southern apsakers, got up a meeting in the Park here; and as by such appliances in such a city $8 this on a fine evening a large meeting can always be bad, the Union was saved over and over sgain, and hours were spent and lungs exhausted, and oratoric gentures and figures put to the bardest use, to assure the audience that the Slavery uestion-which alone was talked about -formed o part of the programme of the American party ; that it was carefully eschowed; that indeed was wholly a local affair, with which a nation-of the new party had no such plank at all! Possibly there may have been Southern gen tismen looking on in that crowd. who will go seme with the impression that its howle or buzas really signified a settled purpose and intelligent conviction: If so, they fainly deceive bamselves; for, even in this city of New York, entertain a flattering persuasion that a majority exists against Stavery-propagandism; and in the State at large, the voice for Freedom, and the resolute purpose that no more Slave States shall be admitted into the Union, so greatly preponderate, that whenever the direct issue comes, the Hindee subscribescy to Slavery will be ridicuous by its insignificance.

The enemy, has thus lost in four days as homeone quantity of provisions, four war steamers, and 240 vessels employed exclusively in provisioning the troops in the Crimes.

The Eye of Street Eyents.—The following letter has been received from the French Camp before Schestopol, dated the 22d.

"At length we are on the eye of great events; averything is prepared. The last arrangements have been made in a council of war, at which Ress. Canrobert, Polissier, Besquet, Lord Rag has, Omer Pasha, Brown, Della Marmora, and Admirals Brunt and Lyons were present. All our reinforcements have core up, and, if my information be correct, the army amounts to 200, 000 men.

On Sunday and Monday two divisions embarked at Kamissch. As the commanders of the steamships have their orders sealed, the destination of the expedition is not known. It weighed anchor on Tuesday, and it is generally believed that it is proceeding to Kertch. Two other divisions are going to the Tebernaya. It is supposed that it is the advanced guard of the expeditionary army, for when a simple recommissance is made it is not usual to take 100 guas.

The whole of the cavalry is in movement.—

CREATER A First affairerian. Ph. Cearing opened, we sind the following

FROM OUR NEW YORK CORRESPONDENT.

Naw Yonk, June 19th, 1855. Every day defines more distinctly the only living issue in our national politics—that be-tween Freedom and Slavery—and all efforts made to arrest the struggle on this sole issue, or to divert attention from it by other collateral ques-"saving the Union," only seem to bring out tore plainly the feelings and resolves of men here at the North to be as firm and united for freedom and its preservation and progress, as the shive-holding interest is for Slavery and its pro-The Milwarker & Horicon Rellroad, for the gross and power. The attempt in Philadelphia the fedit of the city to which our citi- last week, to mould the so-called "National Amerare are to ride to-day, is one of the most icun Convention" to the purposes of slavery was coles a the state, and promises to needed, to show both the infatuation of the south M. wank e an ample tide of wealth .- and their presumptuous faith in bribing, buying, or bullying the North into submission, and the more escouraging and beretofore more doubt ful fact that the north has finally found out that it has a "beckbone," and that manhood and duty to country both require that this backbone be made manifest to all the world.

The city of New York, indeed-true only to the mercenary instincts of those who, in that Convention, spoke for, but assuredly did not reprement-was found more ultra on slavery than the slave owners themselves; but, happily, there is a great state behind the city, a great agricultoral population, that fears God, but fears not man, and that loves liberty more than it leves ucre; and this population, whose own labor makes labor honorable, will pronounce craphatleally against such treachery to Truth and Right, to man and to God, as the Barker crew of socalled Americans in the Philadelphia Convention were guilty of. Last evening, this same crew. by dint of music and cannon, and an array of Southern speakers, got up a meeting in the Park bore; and as by such appliances in such a city as his on a fine evening a large meeting can always be had, the Union was saved over and over again, and hours were spent and lungs exhausted, and oratoric gentures and figures put to the bardest use, to maure the audience that the Slavery question-which alone was talked about-formed part of the programme of the American party; that it was carefully eschowed; that indeed is was wholly a local affair, with which a nationparty had no concern; and that the platform of the new party had no such plank at all !

Possibly there may have been Southern gentlemen looking on in that crowd, who will go heme with the impression that its howls or buzas really signified a settled purpose and intelligent conviction. If so, they fatally deceive themselves; for, even in this city of New York, entertain a flattering persuasion that a majority exists against Slavery-propagandism; and in the State at large, the voice for Freedom, and the esolute purpose that no more Slave States shall be admitted into the Union, so greatly preponderate, that whenever the direct issue comes, the Mindoo substruioucy to Slavory will be ridicuous by its insignificance.

We are looking anxiously for the next account from the Crimes, whence, now, it seems we may essonably expect intelligence of active and derisive movements. Pelimier, the Arabeamoker seems of a different make from his prodecesso u command, and, having large reinforcements at his back, he will not be content with the inglotions yet fatal inaction which thus far has paralized the fine armise under him. There will be hard fighting, and a result-but what result? There is the question; let us await its solution from time. Meantime it does not seem to me that peace is any neater.

The hope of a good harvest was better at the latest dates from Europe, yet the best harvest that can be gathered will not appoly the exhaustion of all the old stocks and the actual consumption of the day ; and there will be, to a certainty continued demand at high prices for breadstuffs from our country. Our weather, here-abouts is unusually cool thus far, but not yet injurious in any way to growing crops, except is be in rotarding somewhat Indian corn ; but it is not to be disguised that the problem of weather, as it may belo or barm the growing fields, is of vastly more consequence to us and to the o to so located, we find that the line in a world than that of Russian or Allied victories in remar, also very one to build. The health of our city is remarkable, and hough we hear of cholers at New Orleans, and occasionally on the Mississippi, there is nothing of it here; nor do the emigrant ships-fewe than heretofore at thinseason-bring disease with them. This is a "apecial edict." The democracy are expected to "hear and obey." If they do not r -nominate "Barstow and the Balance," the Adse te thinks there is no nas in having any democratic party:

THE EVE OF GREAT RVENTS.—The following letter has been received from the French Camp below Sebestopol, dated the 22d.

At length we are on the ave of great events; everything is propared. The last arrangements have been made in a council of war, at which Geos. Canrobert. Polissier, Bosquet. Lord Rag. lan. Omar Pasha, Brown, Delta Marmora, and Admirels Brust and Lyons were present. All our reinforcements have cone up, and, if my information be correct, the army amounts to 200,—000 men.

OOU men.

On Sunday and Monday two divisions emberked at Kamissch. As the commanders of the steamships have their orders scaled, the destination of the expedition is not known. It weighed anchor on Tuesday, and it is generally behived that it is proceeding to Kertch. Two other divisions are going to the Tobernays. It is supposed that it is the advanced guard of the expeditionery army, for when a simple recommonsance is made it is not usual to take 100 guas.

noissauce is made it is not usual to take 100 guns.

The whole of the cavalry is in movement.—
The Russians are going to be attacked at every point. Simpheropol in order to cut off the communications with the Sea of Azoff and the rest of the peninsula. In this manner the Russians will be obliged to accept buttle. 60,000 French are to take part in the expedition. The enthusiasm of the troops is difficult to describe, and the disappointment felt at the reall of the first expedition is already forgotten. The maintary condition is excellent, and our troops could not be better prepared to undertake an affair which is so important. 15,000 of the best troops of Omar Pasha have come here. Egyptian troops is so important. 15,000 of the best troops of Omar Pasha have come here. Egyptian troops have taken their place at Eupatoria. The Sar-distan troops are magnificent. They will, I as-aure you, be worthy of the allies, by the side of whom they are to light.
